

NOAA in Your Neighborhood is a collaborative effort among NOAA agencies to provide enhanced product and service delivery to the nation. This improved service will increase NOAA's effectiveness by enabling agencies to quickly direct customers with specific questions about NOAA products and services to the correct source. NOAA in Your Neighborhood encourages the establishment of new collaborative efforts among NOAA agencies in the areas of outreach, data sharing, research, forecasting, and cross-agency training.

NOAA Agencies Include:

NOAA National Weather Service	NOAA Satellites and Information
NOAA Fisheries	NOAA Ocean Service
NOAA Marine & Aviation Operations

NOAA in Your Neighborhood Webpage: provides an overview of NOAA in Your Neighborhood, plus collaboration examples between NOAA line offices that are already occurring. Also included on this page are:

- NOAA Environmental Information Resource Webpage: provides a one-stop clearinghouse for information about NOAA. This information provides a basic “working knowledge” of the mission, responsibility, and services provided by each NOAA line office.
- NOAA in Your State and Territory Webpage: includes a list of all NOAA offices in the 50 States and U.S. Territories. This page can be used to contact other NOAA agencies in your local area.
- Answers@NOAA.gov: designed for the public to find answers to frequently asked questions or to submit questions regarding NOAA programs or services.
- NOAA People Locator: used to find contact information for current NOAA employees.
